

Robson Lowe Sale of the David Brown Collection of British West Indies – 12 March 1941

The D. M. Brown Collection

This collection had not been mounted when Gunner Brown decided to restrict his philatelic activities to Great Britain. For the past five years, the finest copies from this group that came on the market through 96 Regent Street passed into the hands of this owner.

The quality and appearance is truly exceptional, and many rarities from the famous "T. W. Hall," "G. Clifford," and "John Aspinwall" collections are now re-offered
