

692

693

696

697

700

701

Lot	Photo	Jamaica	Est	Real
688		1710 (9 Jan.) E.L. from Peter Heywood at Jamaica to London, "p. Capt. Tho. Burrow in the Diamond QDC", charged 6d. (double letter) British Inland postage and showing weak London Bishopmark on arrival. Contents include "1 wrote lo you by the packet the 17th Xber (1709, a reference to the Dummer service). Creased and a little discoloured, grimy at folds but not unattractive. Ex. Philbrick collection	£140
689		1710 (18 Dec.) E.L. from Peter Heywood to London, manuscript "p the Cezar QDC" on the address panel, charged 3d. for inland postage to London on arrival and showing weak London Bishopmark on reverse. An attractive and clear script, ex Philbrick collection	£130
690		1728 map of "The Island of Jamaica" by Hermann Moll, some spotting and a little stained at edges, but not unattractive	£100
691		— The John Tallis map (346x271mm.), circa 1850; detailed, with outline colour and vignettes in corners. Fine condition and attractive	£30
692		1746-47 E.L. from London "p. Tanker" (Fawkener) "Packet" to Jamaica, prepaid at 3s. and showing on the address panel "JAMAICA",  in black but slightly smudged; Foster J. 1, an early use and an early date for the restored packet service. Photo	£300
693	Photo	1748 (19 Sep.) E.L. from Kingston to London, showing "JAMAICA"  for this on flap; carried by the "Swallow" packet, charged "IN6" and showing London Bishopmark  to . Clean and attractive, ex. Philbrick collection.	£350
694		1749-51 E.L. (3) from Jamaica to London, manuscript ship's and Captain's name on address panels. AH by private ships; the packet service was suspended from September 1751 until December 1755. Also 1755 (Apr.) E.L. from Virginia to London, also by private ship. Some discoloration and wear at folds, but mostly attractive. Ex. Philbrick	£130
695		1756-59 E.L. (3) to G.B.; the first by H.M.S. Hinde , two by Il M. Packets "Duke" and "Newcastle". The Packet Service was resumed in 1755, for the duration of the "Seven Years War", and was again suspended in 1762. The 1758 E.L. shows, on the flap, "JAMAICA" (Foster J. 1, mainly  for this). Some creasing but mostly attractive; ex. Philbrick	£150

Christie's Robson Lowe Empire Sale 7 Dec 1988

696	Photo	1773 and 1775 E.L. to Scotland, carried by the "Hilsborough" and "Duncannon" Packets to Falmouth; both showing "IAMAICA" (Foster J2 and J3), mainly  to . Ex. Britnor and Philbrick collections.	£200
697	Photo	1779 E.L. to Scotland, manuscript " p. Lord Hyde Pacquet ", "JAMAICA" (Foster J. 1) mainly A on flap; rates computed to London, with h.s. " In all " at top of address panel. Some creasing but attractive; ex. Britnor and Philbrick collections.	£230
698		1780-1841 E.L. and E., the fine collection formed by Miss Philbrick as a study of the Packet Services, mounted on leaves with relevant, detailed notes on services, personalities etc. Handstamps include "JAMAICA" (from 1782), "IAMAICA" (from 1787), "SAVLAMAR" "FALMOUTH", "JAMAICA/date", neuron types, and later namestamps and d.s. including "JAMAICA/PAID", many  or better. The packets have been identified from contemporary sources. (55)	£1,000
699		1790 E.L. from Westmorland, Jamaica to London, manuscript " p. Antelope packet ", showing "SAVLAMAR" almost A and "IAMAICA" (across flap) * to A; light clean crease, attractive. Ex. Philbrick collection	£40
700	Photo	1810 E.L. from Port Royal to Scotland, showing "JAMAICA/F" d.s. mainly A in blue on the address panel, carried by the " Nocton " packet. Worn at folds, some discoloration. Ex Philbrick collection.	£240
701	Photo	— the similar d.s.  in green on 1824 E., with enclosed letter from the Paymaster of the 92nd Regt., to Scotland; rather worn and grimy at folds. Ex. Philbrick collection.	£120
702		1898 large O.H.M.S. (250x 122 mm.) to the Editor of the " Almanack de Gotha ", Germany bearing 1891 2½d. (block of 4, minor defects), 1903 1d. postal card, and 1936-48 airmail cover (3) at 1s1d, 7½d and 9d rates, all to Germany. (5)	£50
703		1907 (16 Jan.) letter sheet, no outer cover or postal markings, apparently to England, the contents concerning the great earthquake on 14th Jan.; " Kingston is in ruins ...last night we slept in the garden ...there is a report that a volcano has broken out in the North ...the great shock was AWFUL on Monday ". The death toll probably exceeded 1,000 and there were lesser shocks for a further fortnight	£100	