Telegraph Money Orders

The system of Telegraph Money Orders is in operation between the United Kingdom and Jamaica. The remitter of a Telegraph Money Order is required to pay, in addition to the M.O. commission, the cost of the Telegram of Advice at the ordinary rate (1/3) or at the "deferred" rate (7½d.) per word. Every word in the telegram has to be paid for; in the case of a "deferred" telegram, the instruction " L.C.O. " is charged as one word, and the word "Postmaster" has also to be sent in every case and must be paid for. Further details may be had from the Chief M.O. Office, Kingston.

Although Money Order Exchange exists between Jamaica and certain British colonies and foreign countries @ Great Britain. Such through money orders are subject on payment to a deduction of two pence for each £1 with a minimum charge of four pence. The full name and address of the payee of a through money order must be given to enable the Chief Money Order Office, London, to forward to the payee a money order for the net amount payable, the money order issued to the remitter being only of value as a receipt for the amount paid and should be retained by the remitter. The following is a partial list of countries to which money orders may be sent through London:-

*Ascension, Australia (Commonwealth of), *Ceylon, Costa Rica, *Cyprus, Cuba, *Egypt, *Fiji, *Gibraltar, Gold Coast, Honduras (Republic of), *Irish Free State, *India and Aden, *Iraq, Japan, *Kenya, *Malta, *New Zealand, *Nigeria, *Nyasaland Protectorate, *Palestine, Portugal, *Rhodesia (Northern and Southern), *Sierra Leone, *South Africa, (Union of), Spain, *Sudan, Sweden, Switzerland, *Tanganyika Territory, *Togoland (British), *Uganda, Zanzibar.

Regulations

Passengers-At intermediate stations a passenger must take his chance of finding a vacant seat in the coach, and must, if there is a vacancy, then pay his fare to the contractor's agent.

The amount for such ticket must be paid in cash, and the ticket must be handed to the driver or guard of the coach before the passenger takes his seat.

In all cases if a passenger intends to leave the coach between stations he must pay the fare to the next Station beyond.

The personal luggage of each passenger is limited to 20 lb. by weight or 2,000 cubic inches by Size. Any excess must be paid for as freight and such excess may not exceed 10lb. in weight, or 1,000 cubic inches in size. Dogs are not allowed to be carried by motor-van.

Oversea Mails

Registration (Overseas)

If it is proved to his satisfaction that a letter or packet duly admitted to Registration has been entirely lost whilst in his custody the Postmaster undertakes to pay an indemnity of 50 francs, except in cases beyond control, e.g., tempest, shipwreck, earthquake and war). No compensation, however is payable except in the case of the loss of the entire letter or packet; and no claim will be admitted if made more than a year after the letter or packet was posted.

The Postal Administrations of all countries and colonies included in the Postal Union give the same undertaking in respect of registered letters or packets lost whilst in their custody.

If it is desired to obtain compensation in the case of abstraction of content & of a letter or to provide for a higher maximum than 50 francs, recourse must be had to the Insurance System. See "Insurance" below.

Insurance-Overseas (For Letters only)

Letters tendered for insurance will be accepted by the Post Office on payment of the fee and subject to the conditions stated below:-

Fee-5d. for every £12 of value in addition to the postage and registration fee.

A Letter is the only article of mail matter which will be accepted for insurance; post cards, printed papers, commercial papers or sample packets will not be accepted.

Letters containing coin, anything made of gold or silver, precious stones, jewellery or any article liable to customs duty in the country of destination cannot be sent by insured letter-post. Objects of value which cannot be sent in insured letters may generally be sent in insured parcels.

The insurance system is specially applicable to letters which contain bank notes, coupons, securities, bonds and other documents of the kind.

Telegraphs

The Government Telegraphs are under the control of the Postmaster General.

There are 243 Postal Telegraph and Telephone Offices distributed throughout the Island connecting every town or village of importance.

In addition, the Jamaica Government Railway with a complement of 48 Telegraph Offices exchanges telegrams with the Postal Telegraph System.

The charge for telegrams for any number of words up to twelve, and The charge for a priority message is 1/6d for every additional word. The address and Signature are both counted. The charge is paid in postage Stamps affixed to the message'

HANDBOOK OF JAMAICA 1952

if the addressee resides within one mile of the terminal office the telegram is delivered by messenger without any additional charge; but if beyond that limit the following portorage fee must be prepaid:-

At a rate of 6d. per mile (one way) counting from boundary of free delivery.

The above rates are maintained whenever practicable. If messengers cannot be obtained at these rates the Postmistress is authorised to make the most reasonable arrangement possible.

The charge for the transmission and for portorage of telegrams must be pre-paid.

Persons resident at a place to which the Island telegraph line has not been extended can benefit by its use on the following conditions:-

(a) if the words "By Post" with the name of a telegraph station be written on a message it will be telegraphed to such station and forwarded from thence to its postal address by first post.

(b) If a letter -marked "On Post Office Telegraph Business " be sent by post to the telegraph clerk at any station, the message enclosed will be promptly forwarded by telegraph from such station. In this case the letter by post must be registered and the cost of the message enclosed in Stamps or coin. Telegrams may also be handed to a mail courier on his way to a telegraph office, but the department does not take any liability for miscarriage.

(c) No charge will be made in either case for postage or registration.

Telegrams may be sent to any port for outward transmission as letters. The sender must write "By Post" before addressee's name, and the name of the terminal Telegraph Office, at the end of the address.

For example.-

"By Post" Brown, 12 Fifth Avenue, New York, Kingston.

In addition to the ordinary telegraph charge the sender must also pay the postage fee.

In such cases registered addresses cannot be used.

The office hours are from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., daily -Sundays and Public Holidays excepted

Night, Sunday and Holiday services may be obtained at the following rates

a. After 6 a.m. until 8 p.m., double rate for telegram, plus a fee of 1/- to each clerk handling the telegram and 6d. for the messenger

b. After 8 p.m. until 6 a.m. double rate the telegrams plus a fee of 2/- to each clerk handling the telegram and 1/- for the messenger.

c. Tie charges of 6d. and 1/-, respectively, for messengers refer only to telegrams for delivery up to one mile from the office.

d. On Public Holidays all offices are open from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. and telegrams are accepted at the ordinary week day rates during these hours.

A certified copy of a telegram may be obtained on application to the Postmaster General on payment of a fee of 6d. If special search is necessary the cost incurred will be charged in addition.

Inland telegrams are retained on file for 3 months, and foreign telegrams for 6 months.

Abbreviated telegraphic addresses (inland) for use at any office, may be registered with the Postmaster General at a cost of 5/- per annum, or upon payment of £2 for a permanent address.

Local telegrams from authorized Government officials, members of the Legislative Council, House of Representatives and other authorized persons on public business are transmitted free of charge.
