1 Introduction

The following draft listing has been developed by Derek Sutcliffe and Steve Jarvis. Additions to the listing would be welcome – please respond to Steve Jarvis on info@bwisc.org.

The name of the organisation is often only known through the name printed on the envelope. Different addresses appear on envelopes of the same firm and sometimes the envelope may belong to a different company than to whom the meter is assigned.

1.1 Aguilar

According to E.F. Aguilar in his article in the British West Indian Philatelist (Vol. 4, March, 1953, No. 3) meter marks were printed by the users agent under licence of the Postmaster General, the design being settled by the Post Office. They are only valid for use on the mail of the licence owner and the user may have an advertisement or slogan added to the meter. The marking consists of either two or three parts, from right to left, the authorised meter mark (containing a code reference letter or letters and a number), secondly the date stamp and lastly in many cases the user's name and advertisement]. Most marks are printed in red ink unless otherwise stated.

In this listing where there is a third portion to a meter mark the wording 'name' or 'slogan' appears before the date(s) of usage.

An arbitrary designation is allocated to each series and the numbers of the markings given. The full name and address of the user (as appearing on the covers or meter mark) are shown after the number and where the user has more than one meter each is shown after its number. Where the user has markings with both the first two portions and others with the third portion added these items two types of the mark are separately listed.

In the 1953 article contains a listing and these are shown by a * after the entry, but if the mark is already noted Aguilar's entry appears in square brackets. Aguilar appears to have given a 'general' name to the user in many cases.

BWIP Vol 9 No 2/3 provides a relisting.

Aguilar also lists in 1958 the following:

- FME102- Ivan B. Fraser Ltd.
- FME103- Delapenha & Ivor-Mandeville.
- FME104- Catholic Opinion.
- FME105- Arawak Hotel.
- FME106- Barclays Bank - King St.

But it unclear as to which type they apply.
