KINGSTON,
Tuesday, July 1, 1794.

BY the Queen Charlotte Packet-boat, which arrived at Port-Royal on Saturday evening, in six weeks from Falmouth, we have received London papers to the 15th of May, whereby we are enabled to continue the narrative of the brilliant successes attending his Majesty's arms and those of his allies, from our Extraordinary Gazette of last week. With the Gazette accounts of the different actions, we have extracted the most interesting articles of intelligence from the latest papers, which we hasten to lay before our Readers.

27 19 GENERAL POST-OFFICE, June 28, 1794.
Notice is hereby Given,
That His Majesty's Packet-Boat the
QUEEN CHARLOTTE,
Captain CAUZAR,
Will sail for GREAT-BRITAIN,
On MONDAY, the 21st July next.
