SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.
 The Adventure packet, Capt. Tilley, anchored at Port-Royal on Sunday evening with the May mail. She sailed on the 14th of that month from Falmouth, and on the 18th ult. to windward of Barbados, carried away her topmasts in a squall.
 On the 15th she arrived in Carlisle-Bay, where she remained until the 21st for the purpose of repairing the damage she had sustained, then proceeded to Fort-Royal, Martinique, reached it on the 22d, left it the same evening, arrived at Curraçoa on the 25th, and sailed from thence on the 27th. Off Palma, on the 29th May, the Packet spoke a merchant brig, in nine days from Lisbon, bound to St. Kitt's, and learnt that a general engagement had taken place between Lord Wellington and Massena in Portugal, in which the former was completely victorious.

It does not appear that any packet had sailed from Falmouth for this island up to the 23d October, having been prevented by a continuance of contrary winds.

At the time the Swallow packet was captured she was within a week's sail of Barbados. The Captain of the Clorinde frigate behaved very handsomely, and would not suffer his men to plunder the packet's crew. There was a box of plate on board for Lieutenant-General Morrison, value £440. which escaped the Frenchmen.
