

Jamaica Post Office Act of 1865

ANNO REGNI VICESIMO NONO
VICTORIYE REGINAE.

JAMAICA, ss.

C A P. XVII.

[22 Dec 1865]

An act to continue, for a limited period, the several expiring acts therein mentioned, and for other purposes.

BE it enacted by the governor, legislative council, and assembly V of this island, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

First – The several undermentioned acts of the legislature of this island, being about to expire, are and each of them is hereby continued in force from the respective date at which each of them would expire, until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six; that is to say,

"The Police Act, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one," of the twenty-fourth Victoria, chapter eleven. Police

"The Post-Office Act, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two," of the twenty-sixth Victoria, session one, chapter seven. Post office

"The act to reduce the amount of the security to be given by the secretary of this island, and for other purposes. Of the twenty-seventh Victoria, session two, chapter one. Reduction of island secretary's security

"The act to revive and continue in force, for a limited period the acts of the twenty-sixth Victoria, chapter thirteen and the twenty-fifth Victoria, chapter forty-two (Insolvent Debtors' Law), and for other purposes of the twenty-seventh Victoria, session two, chapter two. Insolvent debtors

And "the act to provide for the registrar in chancery and clerk of the patents an annual salary in lieu of fees. Register in chancery

Second – The additional junior sergeant, and nineteen additional privates of Police, appointed, or to be appointed for the city of Kingston, shall be paid at the like rates of pay respectively as are authorized, and have the powers and authorities and be subject to the provisions of the "Police Act, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one;" and the water-police employed, and to be employed in aid of the Kingston division of police, shall have the like powers and authorities, and be subject to the like provisions of the said "Police Act, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one."

Third – Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the act of the twenty-eighth Victoria, chapter thirty-two, to provide for the registrar in chancery and clerk of the patents an annual salary in lieu of fees, there shall not be any stamps impressed on any writ of election for any member of the legislature, nor any patent of pardon. Exemption of certain stamp duty on writs of election and patents of pardon.

Jamaica Post Office Act of 1865

Fourth – That in case of any new appointment to the office of registrar in chancery, any person who shall be appointed to such office, shall take the same, subject to any amalgamation of that office with any other, on the abolition thereof, or with any such emolument as the legislature may determine.

New appointment of registrar of chancery subject to conditions.

Passed the Assembly, this twelfth day of December, 1865.

CHARLES HAMILTON JACKSON, Speaker.

Passed the Legislative Council, this 15th day of December, 1865.

SAML. RENNALLS, Clerk of the Legislative Council.

I consent, this 22d day of December, 1865.

E. EYRE.

VERA COPIA EXTUR.