No. 83. 21st February, 1906.
THE following copy of a Notice by Messrs. Neilson & Co., of their intention to apply to the Governor in Privy Council for a license under the Telephone Law, 1893, to have and maintain a telephone service in the town of Savanna-la-Mar, is published for general information in the Jamaica Gazette, in accordance with Rule 9 of the Rules in relation to applications for Licenses &c., under Section 8 of the Telephone Law, 1893.

NOTICE.

Take Notice that we have applied to His Excellency the Governor in Privy Council for leave to have and maintain a telephone service in the town of Savanna-la-Mar, in the parish of Westmoreland, within the following area:—

From north to south, from the corner of the road to Lucea to the sea shore.

From east to west, from the corner of the road to Black River to Bartletts River.

Should any person or persons have any objections to make to the granting of the license we beg they will communicate their objection to the Clerk of the Privy Council within 14 days after date.

Dated at Savanna-la-Mar, 18 December, 1905.

NEILSON CO.

The Notice has been published in the Gleaner and Daily Telegraph newspapers as required by the rule in question.

Any objections can be communicated to the undersigned within fourteen days after date of this Notice.

ROBT. JOHNSTONE,
 Clerk Privy Council.

29 Mar 1906; Stamp Duty Law Amendment [Gazette 29 Mar 1906]

JAMAICA—LAW 5 OF 1906.
The Stamp Duty Law, 1903, Amendment Law, 1906.

[2nd March, 1906.]

BE it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Council of Jamaica, as follows:—

1—The Schedule to the Stamp Duty Law, (Law 40 of 1903) under the heading "SETTLEMENTS," is hereby amended, by striking out the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"If such sum or sums of money or the value of such property shall not exceed five hundred pounds	£0 15 0
Above five hundred pounds and not exceeding one thousand pounds	1 10 0
And for every additional one thousand pounds or the fractional part of one thousand pounds	1 10 0'

And by substituting in lieu thereof the the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"For every one hundred pounds and also for any fractional part of one hundred pounds of the amount or value of the property settled or agreed to be settled	£0 10 0"
---	----------

2—The said Schedule is also hereby amended by adding under the heading

"EXEMPTIONS FROM STAMP DUTIES UNDER THE PRECEDING HEAD SETTLEMENT."

the following further exemptions:—

Where several instruments are executed for effecting the settlement of the same property, and the ad valorem duty chargeable in respect of the settlement of the property exceeds ten shillings, one only of the instruments is to be charged with the ad valorem duties.

Where a settlement is made in pursuance of a previous agreement, upon which ad valorem settlement duty exceeding ten shillings has been paid in respect of any property, the settlement is not to be charged with ad valorem duty in respect of the same duty.

But in each of the two aforesaid cases, the instruments not chargeable with ad valorem duty, are to be charged with the duty of fifteen shillings.

3—Summary proceedings for the recovery of penalties may be taken, and information laid pursuant to Section 52 of the Stamp Duty Law, 1903, by direction of the Attorney General, at any time within six months of the subject matter of such information coming to the knowledge of the Stamp Commissioner.
