ORDER

(made under Regulation 6 of the above Regulations).

THE CONTROL OF COMMUNICATIONS (POSTAL) ORDER, 1942.

1—This Order may be cited as the Control of Communications (Postal) Order, 1942, and shall come into operation on the day of its publication in the Gazette.

2—Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 of this Order, no person shall despatch by post from Jamaica to any of the territories specified in the Schedule hereto or to any Dependencies of such territories or to Belgium, Denmark, France, Holland, or Norway other than Dutch Guiana and the Dutch West Indies—

- (a) any postal packet containing any of the articles enumerated in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) and (iii) and (iv) of paragraph 2 of the Control of Communications Order published in the Gazette of the 4th December, 1939;
- (b) any gramophone or phonographic records or sound tracks;
- (c) any postcard with address label or slip to fold back and adhere to the postcard for address purposes or any postcard consisting of a folded sheet of paper completely gummed together on the inner sides or any postal packet the envelope whereof has been adapted for re-use by means of a gummed slip or tape affixed thereto or has a gummed label (other than an official service label) affixed thereto for any purpose other than that of an address label.

3—The provisions of paragraph 2 of this Order shall not apply to the despatch of any postal packet—

- (a) by a person who has previously obtained a permit for the purpose issued by or on behalf of the Chief Censor and has complied with any conditions subject to which the permit has been granted;
- (b) on His Majesty's Service or on that of a Government Department of the United Kingdom or the Government of Northern Ireland or of any of His Majesty's Colonies, Protectorates or Mandated territories, or a High Commissioner for one of the Dominions, or for India, Burma or Southern Rhodesia, or an Agent-General for one of the Australian States;
- (c) on the official service of the Chief Diplomatic Representative in the United Kingdom of a foreign power or of a Consul General of a foreign power in any of His Majesty's Dominions, Colonies or Mandated territories;

- (d) addressed to and intended for members of His Majesty's Forces;
 (e) addressed to and intended for British or allied subjects interned in a foreign country;
 (f) containing only letters, trade circulars, catalogues, bills of account or lading, receipts, invoices and similar trade documents, cheques, bills of exchange or other negotiable or valuable securities: Provided that the despatch, nature or contents of any such article or valuable security does not contravene any Defence, Post Office or other Regulation or law, for the time being in force, and provided that such postal packet is sent by a post other than parcel post.

and
ALL ORDERS IN COUNCIL RELATING THERETO OR CONNECTED THEREWITH.

REGULATIONS

(Made under the provisions of the above Acts and Orders in Council and every other power hereunto enabling.)

THE JAMAICA DEFENCE (AMENDMENT) (No. 18) REGULATIONS, 1942.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Jamaica Defence (Amendment) (No. 18) Regulations, 1942, and shall be read and construed as one with the Jamaica Defence Regulations, 1940 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Regulations) and all amendments thereto, and shall come into operation on the date of their publication in the Gazette.

2. The principal Regulations are hereby amended by the insertion therein, next after Regulation 5, of the following regulation as regulation 5A—

“Special provisions for censoring of shipping information.

5A. (1) For the purposes of this regulation the expression “shipping information” means any information as to the arrival, departure, movements, conveying, escorting, armaments, or manning, of shipping, or as to the expectation of any arrival, departure, movements, conveying, escorting, armaments, or manning, of shipping or as to the bunkering or expected bunkering of shipping, or as to the supply or expected supply of ships’ stores to shipping, or as to the cargo or persons carried or expected to be carried in any ships, or as to the assemblies or expected assemblies of ships in particular localities or as to casualties to ships or persons on board ships or as to weather conditions affecting shipping; and a telegram or postal article shall be deemed to contain shipping information if such information is in any way whatsoever capable of being inferred from such telegram or postal article.

(2) No person shall dispatch by post from Jamaica to a person outside Jamaica—

(a) any postcard containing shipping information; or

(b) any other postal article containing shipping information on the outside thereof.

(3) Any person desiring to send from Jamaica to a person outside Jamaica a telegram containing shipping information shall keep the telegram in a closed envelope until it is submitted for censorship and shall submit it for censorship to the Censor of postal matter and telegrams. No person shall open any envelope containing such censored telegram until it is handed in for transmission.

(4) No person shall dispatch by post from Jamaica to a person outside Jamaica any postal article containing shipping information unless it is first submitted, duly stamped, for censorship to the Censor of postal matter and telegrams. No person shall open any such postal article after it has been censored.”
