Registered Mail

Definition

Registered mail is a service that provides added protection to mail and provides limited indemnity in case of loss or damage.

Description of Service

Registered mail service provides compensation depending upon the actual value at the time of mailing, except that insurance is not available for articles of no value.

There is no limit on the value of articles sent as registered mail.

The following services are provided as part of registered mail service at no additional cost to the mailer:

- a. A receipt;
- b. A record of delivery, retained by the Postal Service for a specified period of time;
- c. When registered mail is undeliverable-as-addressed and cannot be forwarded, a notice of non-delivery is provided.

Registered mail must be deposited in a manner specified by the Postal Service & is provided maximum security. Registered mail is forwarded and returned without additional charge.

Fees

The fees for registered mail are indicated in the Fee Schedule.

Domestic Mail (First-Class Mail)

Definition

First-Class Mail includes those letters and letter packages (i.e., "letter mail") which satisfy the following basic criteria:

- Mail closed or otherwise sealed against postal inspection;
- Handwritten or typewritten communications having the character of current and personal correspondence;
- Matter having the character of actual and personal correspondence; and,
- Bills & statements of account.

Unless prohibited by the destination country, merchandise and printed matter conforming to the applicable weight and size limits also may be mailed at letter rates. Letter mail must be enclosed in an envelope or wrapper.

Any matter eligible for mailing may, at the option of the mailer, be mailed as First-Class Mail.

Description of Service

Use First-Class Mail for sending letters, postcards, postal cards, greeting cards, personal notes, checks, and money orders.

Additional services such as certificates of mailing, registered, and restricted delivery can be purchased for First-Class Mail. Insurance can also be purchased. However, insured articles mailed at the First-Class rate must contain only merchandise or material not required to be sent as First-Class Mail.

All First-Class Mail receives prompt handling and transportation. First-Class Mail is generally delivered within 2 days to locally designated addresses. Delivery by the third day can be expected for remaining outlying areas.

Priority Mail: Local Deliveries

Definition

Zip Mail® is our premium domestic product, and offers rapid delivery at the least expensive rate in the industry. It is an expedited domestic priority mail service that provides customers with a reliable and economical means of sending correspondence, business documents, printed matter, and lightweight merchandise e.g. product samples items to other parishes.
